Lydia's Closet

The thrift shop is open on Saturdays and the hours are 10 a.m. to noon. If you have a free Saturday, come by and help out and meet people. Also, help is always needed for sorting items. Thanks!

Donations have been steadily coming in and now we have even more varied items to choose from. Tell your friends and family.

With spring cleaning, this would be a great opportunity to review your items and donate them to the shop.

The Thrift Shop is in need of household items in good/like-new condition such as pans, bakeware, dishes, kitchen gadgets, yard tools, small appliances, small furniture such as bookcases, side tables, and plant stands, decorations, knick knacks, collectibles, etc. Jewelry, pocketbooks, and shoes are always hot items.

Church Cookbook

Here's a message from Dee Kiehl:

I'd like to collect recipes from all the members of the church, and their families. My goal is to put together a recipe booklet for our church...nothing fancy. We could sell it at events and the thrift store then use the money for our different food-related missions.

My first step is collecting all the recipes! I'll take the recipes any way you want to give them to me...handwritten, emailed, or dictated over the phone

Dee Kiehl, irishdd1959@yahoo.com, 401-781-1804

New Worship Format Update!

Have you experienced worship at ECC over the last couple months? If so, you have been part of some amazing moments! If not, come see how we are worshipping God in some unique and powerful ways!

Mission Sundays have included George Ortiz from The Elisha Project in February, Cristina Cabrera from Environmental Justice League of RI in March, and Dennis DeJesus from Special Olympics. They shared the focus of their missions with us, and congregation members participated in “hands and feet of Jesus” work DURING these services. In addition to members of ECC learning about the many ways in which God is at work in our local community and how each of us can contribute, Elisha and EJLRI received half of our loose plate offerings on those Sundays to put toward their good works.

Our new Manna: Feeding the Body † Feeding the Spirit monthly worship program is in full swing! This short, casual worship service in Fellowship Hall is combined with a delicious breakfast once a month. So many people have been involved in this; from cooking and setting up, to leading worship, to obtaining donations from the community, to inviting those who may be lonely to be our guests. From 9 a.m. (or earlier for some!), the kitchen and hall are abuzz preparing food and worship. Comments have been so positive; many who thought they would only enjoy worship in the sanctuary are realizing that a more casual, intimate environment can be meaningful as well! Don't worry, though; our beloved Brenda and ECC choir still play and sing during these services!

Upcoming Worship includes...

- May 6: Rev. Nancy Soukup: Come be part of Nancy's energy-filled worship hour and experience ECC's spirit.
- May 13: Mother's Day: Bring a picture of a mom or mom-like person in your life (male or female!) and share a service dedicated to the love of God shown through our motherly influences.
- May 20: Rev. Nancy Soukup: Confirmation and Pentecost Sunday. Join us as we celebrate the confirmation of four of our youth who have grown in the congregation since birth: Emma Maroni, Nicholas Maroni, David Scarborough, and Nathan Scarborough.
- May 27: Memorial Day Service: Michael Ruo will lead us in a service dedicated to those who have died in service to our country. If you are able to participate in sharing your story of a loved one who died in the line of duty, please contact Michael, Jerry, or a member of the Worship Team by May 13th.

More to come next month!

Food Closet

Helping the Community – Did you know that the Edgewood-Pawtuxet Food Closet is part of the Comprehensive Community Action Program (CCAP) and the Rhode Island Food Bank? Our Food Closet covers people who live between Providence on the north, Warwick on the south, Narragansett Bay on the east, and Elmwood Avenue on the west. Clients are referred by CCAP. The Church of the Transfiguration donates space and volunteers donate their time on Tuesday and Friday mornings, and Wednesday evenings. Some of the food is purchased from the RI Food Bank, but the rest must come from donations.

Items that are always needed are: boxed pastas such as elbow, ziti, shells, etc.; canned fruit and vegetables; tomato paste, diced tomatoes, tomato sauce; dry beans, and toilet paper. Any non-perishable food items and individual personal care products can be placed in the shopping cart in our Narthex and our volunteer, Carol Cornell, will deliver them to the Edgewood-Pawtuxet Food Closet. Thanks so much Carol!

Everything you donate is used directly by those who need it most. Please remember the words of Christ, “What you have done to the least of these you have done to me.”

Holy Joe's Café

Holy Joe's Café – COFFEE FOR THE TROOPS

Holy Joe's Café originated from the First Congregational Church in Wallingford, Connecticut on Pentecost Sunday, 2006. Based on a simple goal to collect and ship coffee thus assisting our military chaplains in Iraq, Afghanistan, and Kuwait with their Coffee House Ministry. What began as a coffee drive within one church family has gained momentum through the Holy Spirit and has grown into a national donation effort.

At this time in Iraq and Kuwait find themselves in difficult and life-threatening situations. This exacts and extreme physical, emotional, and psychological toll on them. Through Holy Joe's Café Ministry, the support that is offered to them is so effective and well received, that the outreach program has grown to assist over 120 chaplains.

You can help in this special ministry to our troops by a donation through <http://Interfaith.EqualExchange.com> or by making your donation through the church office. You can designate your gift and make it through the offering on Sundays or bring your gift to the church office and Jerry will be glad to collect it on behalf of Holy Joe's Café. Brochures are located in the Narthex and at the Arnold Avenue entrance.

As usual, ½ of the loose currency in the collection for the last Sunday of the month is donated to Holy Joe's Café.
